The entire defense program is being imperiled by strikers in key industries. We laymen cannot understand how the government has power to pick up a boy and put him in the army, yet seems to have no power to insure that that boy is provided with arms and ammunition.

If the government has power to draft mothers' sons, surely, it has power to draft industry, take it over and operate it, as it did the railroad systems during the first World War.

The ultimate end of this country, if strikers in vital industries continue, it like France and many other conquered countries, will itself be subjugated by powers who brook no interferences with the production and assembly lines.

This country pampers workers too much. This pampering may possibly be all right in peacetime, but it is leading this nation to chaos today.

France fell primarily because its workers, like our workers, were taught to expect less work and more pay; they were like our workers, taught to expect the "more abundant life," and a paradise here on earth. Forty-hour maximum per week was the chore. Just across the Rhine, men worked sixty and seventy hours a week and did not have time to loiter with the "more abundant life." Those west of the Rhine fell easy prey to those east of the Rhine.

This war will be won or lost on the production lines of industries. Men without highly specialized equipment cannot fight against a nation that has such equipment in abundance. They why, we ask, should the government permit the strikes to continue?

If this nation should be conquered in spite of its many assets, including raw materials, workshops, transportation systems and power, its defeat will have been brought about by the strikers, and nobody else.

Large groups of soldiers, no doubt, are not satisfied with their "working conditions"—sleeping on the ground, maneuvering without sleep for 24 hours or more at a time, living among chiggers and rattlesnakes and other pests—and with their pay of $21.00 a month. Suppose they struck for better "working conditions" and higher pay? Would the mediation board be called in? Would their claims be heard by dispassionate committees? Hell no, they would be sent to Leavenworth. In wartime, they would be shot.

What is sauce for the goose in the army, drawing $21.00 per month, should be sauce for the gander, drawing ten or fifteen dollars a day. Am I right or wrong?

While on the general subject of the war, let it be said that there seems to be TOO MANY poor, ignorant white boys and negro boys (who have nothing to defend and would be about as well off under Hitler as they are now), and TOO FEW of the elite (who do have something to defend), being sent to the army. It looks as if this war, like the first World War, is headed toward being a rich man's WAR and a poor man's FIGHT.

Continuing on this general subject it is my candid belief that a young, healthy and vigorous congressman without children, should volunteer his own services BEFORE (or immediately after) he votes to send your boy and my boy into war. If not, such a congressman, who is unwilling to take the medicine he prescribes for your boy and my boy, should be sent to the oblivion that such an unpatriotic record so rightly deserves. But watch 'em volunteer!! They will have more excuses than a dog has fleas.

And, still our people do not seem to realize that our country is in extreme peril!!

COUNTY DEFENSE BOARD TO HAVE THREE MEETINGS

According to Mr. Hubert Clark, chairman of the Grenada County USDA, three general meetings of farmers were called, as follows: Holcomb, on Thursday, October 23 at 2:30 p. m. Gore Springs School, on Thursday, October 23 at 2:30 p. m. and tomorrow, (Friday) October 24 at the county court house in Grenada at 10:30 a. m. These meetings are for the purpose of arousing interest among the farmers of this county in the production of at least 15 percent more hogs, cattle, chickens, eggs, milk, oats, peanuts and corn, keeping in mind the injunction of the Secretary of Agriculture that "Food will win the war."

The meeting tomorrow (Friday) morning will be held in conjunction with the "Farm Bureau Rally." The Cotton Insurance Program will be discussed.

Without adequate food supplies, no war can be won.

Taylor-New Wedding Solemnized Saturday

In an impressive, taper lighted ceremony, replete with family sentiment, Adelaide New, attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Theodore Bingham, became the bride of Robert Parrish Taylor, son of Mrs. Eugene Lovejoy Marders, of Grenada, at Westminster Presbyterian Church, Memphis.

The ceremony was solemnized at 8 with Rev. Samuel A. Howie, pastor and Rev. C. A. Pharr, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Grenada, officiating in the double ring ceremony. The bride carried a white prayer book that was used in the wedding of her mother, grandmother and great grandmother, and wore the ring that had been worn in the weddings of the groom's family for three generations. The groom, in turn, wore a ring worn two generations in the bride's family. The church presented a beautiful nuptial scene with its deep background of smilax and stately palms, white flowers and gleaming tapers. The candles were arranged in a square effect across the back with groupings of tall tapers graduating upwards at each side and clusters of three candles at intervals in the greenery.

Two single tapers outlined the altar scene with shining light and cast a soft radiance over large baskets of giant white chrysanthemums.

Prior to the ceremony a program of nuptial music was presented.

Mrs. Harry S. Steuterman, organist, played Schubert's "Ave Maria," "To An Evening Star" from Tannhauser, "Liebestraum" and "O Perfect Love," "I Love You Truly." The Bride Chorus from Lohengrin was played for the recessional and Mendelssohn's Wedding March for the recessional. The bride entered on the arm of her brother, Kurt Anton New, who gave her in marriage. She wore a lovely bridal model, an original of gleaming white slipper satin, fashioned with a shirred, slimly-fitted bodice. The garter net yoke was intricately embroidered with clusters of delicate pearl flowers. The very full skirt flowed in wide graceful folds to a train. A face veil of three tiered illusion was arranged to a coronet of orange blossoms. The lovely bouquet surmounting the quaint white prayer book, was of white orchids and stephanotis falling in a shower of white satin ribbon.

The bride's attendants were: Ann Wornton, maid of honor; Gene Marders, of Grenada, sister of the groom; Mrs. Thomas Caldwell Henderson Jr., of Tunica, Miss.; Elizabeth Tidwell, of Cuba Hill and Hallie Pratt, bridesmaids. Their gowns were identical models of paperyshell taffeta, with basque trains, featuring shirred fullness, radiating from a diamond motif at the waistline.

The maid of honor wore blue shadings to rose and the bridesmaids dresses were of coral shading to gold. They wore flower plumes in their hair fashioned from gold chrysanthemum petals and carried cascade bouquets of gold chrysanthemums tied with gold metallic ribbon.

The groom was attended by Fred Wallace as best man. Groomsmen included Ben Adams, Jr., of Grenada; Taylor Hunt Maddux, of Collierville, Tenn.; a cousin of the groom; E. L. Boteler, Grenada; Julian R. Camp and F. B. Crunk, Jr.

Mrs. Bingham was attired in sapphire blue crepe and Mrs. Marders wore a lovely model of duobonnet silk Jersey and chose a bird of paradise corsage.

A beautiful reception at the home of the bride followed and after the reception, the young couple left for a Southern wedding trip in New Orleans and Florida.

The bride wore a smart costume suit combining a blue suit with a blue and brown plaid top coat with a red fox collar. Her hat was brown draped with blue jersey and her accessories were brown.

They will reside in Sylacauga, Ala., where the groom is employed as an engineer by DuPont.

His many friends in Holcomb and Grenada wish him well in his new post. He has been most industrious and most helpful to the young men of the Holcomb School.

Parties And Luncheons High Light Of Grenada Social Calendar

Miss Mary Louise West, popular bride-elect of Ensign Linden Wright, was charmingly entertained Friday evening at a Rainbow Supper party, given by her aunt, Mrs. Harry Adams at the Young home on Second Street.

The reception rooms were aglow with many lovely flowers, the colors emphasizing the rainbow motif. The arrangements of radianse roses, dahlias, marigolds and zinnias, interspersed with the lovely lilac shade of mountain asters and the stately beauty of a large vase filled with Mexican sunflowers created a very lovely setting for the supper. The tables draped with colorful cloths, and the severa courses served in rainbow colored China added further charm to the affair. At the bride's table an adorable blond bride favor marked the honoree's place, also a larger size of the lovely individual corsage favors used as place card holders for the guests marked her place. Mrs. West, Miss Anna Anderson, Miss Martha Bess Brown, Miss Mary Jane Young, of Jackson, and Miss Ann Neely, another bride-to-be, were seated at the bride's table with Miss West, the hostess invited each of the other guests to partake of at least one course at the bride's table. Between courses a miniature wedding scene was enacted when Mrs. Dollarhide at the piano, played Lohengrin's Wedding March, dainty little

Very Heavy Rain Last Friday Night

What is believed to be the heaviest rain of the year fell Friday night and early Saturday morning, the heaviest part falling early Saturday morning. This rain was so severe that it undermined the east wall of the Fred Griffin partially completed building and dumped all the brick into the alley.

This rain found ALL the unsuspected leaks.

Jacqueline Sanderson, attired in a bride's dress of white satin and long tulle veil, entered with Roger Dollarhide, Jr., handsome in formal attire, and made their way to the bride's table where the miniature groom presented Miss West a "Battleship of Good Wishes" for much happiness, from each guest. The tiny bride then presented Miss West a signed cook book which contained a signed recipe from each guest. As Mendelssohn's familiar recessional was played the bride and groom went back to the dining room where they were served at a small white table placed near the lace draped dining table which was centered by a charming arrangement of white chrysanthemums. Assisting Mrs. Adams were Mesdames John Young, of Jackson, Sel Roate, B. C. Adams and Miss Jane Young.

- DYRE-KENT GRID PICK
- Those who followed our advice won last week with 12 out of 15 right. We picked two upsets, Indiana over Nebraska and Army over Yale. The top ranking three were Sam Yolles, Merritt Clogston and Jack Ward. Sam Yolles' name was drawn for the free drinks. We again give you the benefit of our pick. We take the teams on the left.
1. Ole Miss-Tulane
 2. Georgia-Alabama
 3. Ga. Tech-Auburn
 4. Columbia-Army
 5. Navy-Howard
 6. Cornell-Colgate
 7. Vanderbilt-Princeton
 8. Dartmouth-Yale
 9. Boston College-Georgetown
 10. Northwestern-O. S.
 11. Michigan-Minn.
 12. Marquette-Duquesne
 13. Indiana-Wisconsin
 14. Fordham-T. C. U.
 15. E. S. U.-Florida

On the national gridiron pick this week we notice they are spotting Ole Miss 13 points over Tulane. We will show you why this is wrong. Rice beat Tulane one point, L. S. U. beat Rice 27 points. Ole Miss beat L. S. U. 21 points. This makes Ole Miss 56 points better than Tulane. But don't bet your money that way.

Congratulations to F. R. Lickfold, the Jeweler, who has continuously been in business in Grenada for 50 years.

Mrs. Irwin Johnson and mother, Mrs. Claude Perry entertained Mrs. J. C. Morgan, matron at the Grenada Hospital, and a group of student nurses who were off duty on Tuesday evening at a most delightfully planned supper party at the Johnsons new home South of town.

The home was charmingly decorated and arranged for this happy affair and both Mrs. Perry and Mrs. Johnson proved the most gracious of hostesses to their appreciated friends, "the sweet girls at the hospital."

Dr. G. Y. Gillespie, Sr. of Duck Hill, Honored By I. C.

The Illinois Central System paid tribute to Dr. G. Y. Gillespie, Sr., the afternoon of October 20th at Duck Hill, Miss., and presented him with a gold pass as a testimonial of appreciation and in recognition of his having completed fifty years of active and faithful service as local Surgeon.

Dr. Gillespie is now in his 87th year and has been practicing medicine for sixty years. He has been a valuable and popular local surgeon for the railroad for half a century.

The solid gold pass with his name beautifully inscribed is good on any train anywhere on the Illinois Central System.

Dr. Gillespie and all five of his sons are graduates of the University of Mississippi. He is the father of eight children, seven of whom grew to maturity. He has fifteen grand children and one great grand child. He was born August 5th, 1855 on a farm near Oxford, Miss., and was graduated from the University of Mississippi in 1878. Later he taught school and studied medicine, patronizing both Vanderbilt University and Memphis Medical College, graduating from the latter in 1883.

After eight years of practice at Arkabutla, Miss., he settled at Duck Hill, Miss., in 1891. He has held high rank in the Woodman of the World and in various medical associations—county, state and national, having served a term as President of the Tri-States Medical Association.

In earlier days Dr. Gillespie maintained a fine stable of saddle and racing horses, but in later years his hobby has been growing, budding and grafting peach trees. He has always been a devoted member of the Presbyterian Church and gave the local congregation at Duck Hill a building for worship in 1939, as a memorial to his wife.

The presentation of the honored pass was made by J. F. Sharkey, Superintendent of the Mississippi Division, Water Valley, Miss., in the presence of Mrs. J. E. Aldridge, daughter of Dr. Gillespie, with whom he lives, Herman J. Rouck, Trainmaster, Grenada, Miss., W. Roscoe Bourne, District Traffic Agent, Clarksdale, Miss., and W. Rogers Burt, Grenada, Miss.

Fifteen Divorces Granted By Judge Smith

Chancery Court, conducted by Chancellor I. A. Smith, of Holly Springs, will probably consume most of the present week in the hearing of divorce actions, matters of administration, will cases and habeas corpus proceedings.

On a habeas corpus proceeding, seeking to obtain bail—which had been denied by the magistrate's court—for Robert Orrell charged with killing young Bratton near Oxberry, Judge Smith also denied bail to the alleged slayer. On a similar proceeding concerning the negroes charged with the killing in Beat Four, the negroes were freed.

Fifteen divorces, eight for white couples and seven for colored couples, were granted.

In a contest seeking to set aside the will of the late King Anderson (col.) the judge held the will to be valid.

Thursday morning, the case in which Mr. R. N. Brooks is contesting the will of his deceased mother, Mrs. Henrietta Brooks, is being heard.

The Stork Flew By And Left...

A little girl, Carol Fay, for Mr. and Mrs. Erle Johnston, Jr., of Jackson last week.

A little son, Lewis Simpson, for Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Walton, of Slate Springs, at Grenada Hospital on October 19, 1941.

A little son, Van Jerald, for Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Clark, of Holcomb, at Grenada Hospital on October 18, 1941.

A little daughter, Linda Fay for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sykes, of Duck Hill, at Grenada Hospital on October 22, 1941.

We were visited by Grenada's most affectionate bridal couple, Mr. and Mrs. Alf Guntharp, Monday and they took occasion to renew. There is something inspirational about this splendid couple who, tho married forty or fifty years, not only are devoted one to the other, but act that way.

Why Kid Ourselves

Why kid ourselves by believing that we are "at peace"? The truth of the matter is that we have been, for all intents and purposes, at war with the Axis nations for many months.

Why be horrified because the destroyer was torpedoed in the North Atlantic? That destroyer had orders from the President to shoot on sight any Axis submarine or any Axis raider. It was dog eat dog in that case.

Why cry, "Peace, peace", when there is no peace? Why wave the olive branch with one hand and carry the sword in the other?

Our government should quit trying to deceive its people by pretending that America is not at war. IT IS AT WAR and the worst kind of war - the war that is fought under the fiction of peace or non-belligerency.

The United States should do one of two things: first, get into the war up to its neck, or, second, quit aiding one of the belligerents (?). If we are at peace in this war-torn world, let us concentrate our most intense efforts upon production of means of defense. If we are at war, let us put every ounce of our energy, every naval vessel, every bomber, every fighter into the effort to liquidate Hitler and his henchmen.

This pussyfooting kind of "peaceful war" is not getting us anywhere. We are making ONE side angry because we are sending ANYTHING to the OTHER side, and we are making the OTHER side angry because we are not sending MORE.

If we are IN the war, let us see that the things being sent to the Allies GET THERE, and not permit them to be sunk indiscriminately. If we are OUT of the war, let us keep our ships, our equipment and our men at HOME. America cannot be both IN and OUT of the war at the SAME time.

Buy Car Tags At Home

For several good reasons which we will cite further on, Grenada County car owners are urged to buy their tags in Grenada County. The only possible reasons that one could have for doing otherwise are that the car owner could have for buying tags away from home are his like for the sheriff in another county or his dislike for our sheriff.

The first reason, a very personal and selfish reason is that, if you live in this county you MUST buy your tag here, otherwise you will have to buy TWO tags. Nobody wants to be hard about the matter, however, and force a car owner to buy a second tag for the same car.

The second reason is that the "tag money, except one dollar, is kept in this county and is used in maintaining county roads and building new roads. Therefore, it is patriotic to buy tags at home, and good business too.

The third reason is that the so-called "gasoline money" is distributed by the State, which collects it, among the 82 counties in proportion to the number of car tags purchased in the several counties. In other words, if Grenada county people purchase 2.5 percent of the whole number of tags purchased in the State, Grenada county will receive 2.5 percent of the "gasoline money" collected by the State. All of this money, too, is used in maintaining county roads and building new ones.

A fourth reason is that our own sheriff and tax collector, instead of the sheriff and tax collector of some other county, receives the small fee for the sale of the tag. Few people realize that the sheriff receives darn little, if any pay for the enforcement of the laws; that about all the money he receives is by virtue of being the tax collector.

Tags cost the same wherever bought within this State. Therefore, for the very good reason given, you are urged to buy your car tags AT HOME.

And, by the way, you had better buy that tag during the month of October, otherwise you will have to pay a penalty.

Commission Form Of Government

More and more are we coming to the idea that Grenada should try a commission form of government, with two-year terms for the commissioners. We have favored changing from our aldermanic form of government to the commission form of government. The commission form of government seems to be successful in Memphis, Jackson and Greenwood, to mention a few. Three men govern each of these much larger communities. Why should Grenada have seven (or, as some of the aldermen committees fuss about, one man) men to govern it?

Unfortunately, this matter of a commission form of government has always in the past been brought up at or near a change of city administration, and various matters, in no manner connected with the main issues, have injected themselves into the question. At this time, we are practically in the MIDDLE of the terms of the present officers. At no better time could this matter be discussed and, perhaps, voted upon than at this time when extraneous matters could not justly be brought in. At this time, nobody can say that the discussion and the voting are directed at ANYONE.

For purposes of discussion, and with no pride in authorship, we suggest that the Charter be changed so that a Mayor and two commissioners be ELECTED, and that they, in turn, appoint the other employees needed by the City; that the Mayor be the commissioner to look after finances and general administration; that one Commissioner look after the streets and that the third Commissioner look after the Water Department and street lighting. We would hope that three men, imbued more with a desire to serve their city than with a desire to make personal profit, be elected. To avoid the eternal ado about costs, etc., we would suggest that the police officers, including the Chief of Police, be paid decent salaries, and that a Police Judge be appointed to try ALL cases; and, further, that ALL costs go to the City Treasury.

If Joe Stalin can continue to retreat in order, he can wear Hitler out.

Finish Number Eight Highway

Most people in Grenada are extremely anxious to get an army camp here, yet an army camp will "be here today and gone tomorrow" perhaps leaving a bunch of deflated values - all of which we personally are anxious to risk, let it be said; but the completion of a paved No. 7 State Highway from Grenada to Minter City will be here both today and tomorrow, giving easy access to Grenada from the fertile country on Tallatchie and Quiver rivers, as well as further into the great Delta country.

If, as we stated in a previous issue, No. 8 is now like a beautiful woman with three front teeth knocked out, let us bestir ourselves and urge Dentist T. J. Lowery to "bridge" that ugly gap; let us be, FOR ONCE, united in our insistence that this 27-miles stretch be graded and paved.

Think of the potentialities not only of the new lands in OUR county which will be cleared when OUR dam is built, but also of the potentialities of the much greater areas which will be opened up when the whole of the flood control of the Yazoo system is completed - much of which territory is on or near No. 8 Highway!

UNDER THE MAGNOLIA TREE

BY HERBERT B. ALLEN

In order to understand the nature of the controversy raging around religious freedom in Russia, it is essential to realize that religion and the church are one thing in many European countries, and something quite different in the United States.

It is commonly believed that we enjoy a much greater measure of freedom in the United States than exists in continental Europe. Then just what is it that stands between many European nations and greater freedom?

In most European countries there are groups of powerful persons who control entire nations from behind the scenes. In Germany, for example, whether the government is in the hands of a Kaiser, a president, or a dictator, the real power is usually exercised by a small number of great industrialists.

In Russia, prior to the revolution, a very weak and corrupt royalty and aristocracy held power over the Russian nation. In turn they were supported by the same groups which are behind most of the governments in southern, central and eastern Europe - the large land owners and the church.

The heads of the church are appointed by the national rulers, and they are a very important part of all national policy. Thus, no matter how terrible the government may be, it has the unswerving support of the church at all times. So that if conditions become unbearably bad, as they did in Russia, in order to overthrow the government, it becomes necessary to overcome the church also.

Thus in Russia, the Czar was the ruler by divine right, and as the Little Father, he also was head of the state church of Russia. In other words the government and the church are so intertwined that if one is to be destroyed, it becomes necessary to destroy both.

The traditional influence of the churches in most parts of Europe have been exercised for centuries to keep the common people in ignorance and superstition. Poverty and illiteracy have gone hand in hand under that system. In 1914 there were probably less than five per cent of the common people in Russia who could read or write their own names.

If you have ever wondered why the Spanish civil war was fought with such terrible bitterness and ferocity, you have the answer when you realize that the indescribable poverty and ignorance of the Spanish people was maintained by the authority of the church, and that the Royal family, the nobility, and the church owned all of Spain that was worth owning, and the population existed only to serve this small minority.

Should you think this is prejudiced account of the Spanish trouble, read the article on Spain in the Encyclopedia Britannica or better still, visit any Central American country today, where you can see the same thing with your own eyes.

It happened that I was in Russia during the closing period of the Russian revolution. There I witnessed the reasons why the church had to be liquidated before there could be any national freedom in Russia, in the sense in which we use the term. The Eastern Orthodox Church was the final props on which the whole rotten structure of czarist despotism rested. And so it was destroyed.

At the time I was in Russia it is safe to say that Russia was probably six centuries behind western Europe in general culture. From a land where industry was much more rare than it now is in Mississippi, to a country which has so far withstood the assault of the greatest mechanized armies of history, is a vast step for any country to make in twenty years.

There would be a great deal of misunderstanding eliminated if people would compare the Russia of today with the Russia of 1914 - and not compare the Russia of today with Germany, France, Britain and the United States, which have had the advantage of western civilization for the past several centuries. The greatest miracle of the twentieth century has been the advances made within Russia in only twenty years.

Truth is truth, and there is little to be gained by misrepresenting it. Whether we like it, or whether we don't like it, it has been the great successes scored in modern Russia which make the country so hated and misrepresented. While the democratic world has foundered around in helplessness, an ignorant and illiterate people were given a remarkable lift on the road to what we call civilization.

Let me give another example of the activity of the church in Europe in the past twenty years. Writing in the national magazine, "Liberty" of August 30th, the great German industrialist Fritz Thyssen described how he came to finance Hitler to power in Germany.

In 1923 during the French occupation of the Ruhr, Mr. Thyssen took credit for organizing successful resistance by Germany to the Allied efforts to collect reparations. Mr. Thyssen wrote, "The passive resistance was organized entirely by me. But I had the absolute cooperation of the population. The Catholic clergy, particularly the Cardinal Archbishop of Cologne, supported our efforts with the greatest devotion. It was thanks to them that there could be accomplished in the Ruhr a real national union which made it possible to save the integrity of the Reich."

This article is not in defense of anything, nor is it an attack on anything. It merely points out certain things which are not known to the American people. Those who are interested in this controversy over freedom of worship in Russia can easily review the conditions in France which led up to the terrible slaughter of the French Revolution of 1789. The reasons why the church lost its power in Russia were the same that brought about its downfall in France.

GLORIA SWANSON

You're a woman with a history; Of this I have no doubt. Your eyes have always been engaging, But once you got a wee bit stout.

In Keystone Comedy you got your start. You kicked a wicked heel. And made the youngsters squeal. As you threw the custard pies about.

Then later you became The leading siren of the screen. With tall, impassioned Rudolf. You were dubbed the nation's "cream."

And then you ate too much; The years got in their dig. The pictures kicked you out, Because your hips had grown too big.

But now you're back! Electric rollers ate your fat; You dieted and kicked. And now, thank God, - Again, those good old hips are thin and flat!

NOTE: La Swanson must surely be a grand old war-horse. She has survived two wars and three husbands. Any woman who has been through that much blood-shed deserves a poem. How good it is to have some of the old-timers in pictures, really make a courageous comeback.

SUPPER PARTY FOR BRIDE-ELECT

Mrs. Hal Rogers entertained most graciously Tuesday evening at seven o'clock for her friend, Miss Mary Louise West, bride-elect of Mr. Linden Wright, at a delightful supper party at her home on South Street.

The hostess received her guests wearing a dress of blue crepe with a lovely corsage of white flowers and the honoree chose a tulle-trimmed model of black crepe with pink flower corsage.

The home presented a gala appearance for this delightful social event. The golden wedding ring motif was emphasized in the score cards, table decorations and on the beautiful supper plate and the table service.

Exquisite arrangements of golden hued dahlias blended into a perfect picture at one end of the long living room only to be the rival for beauty when compared to the lovely bouquets of dahlias of pale gold and the rich tones of marigolds and lovely yellow and white chrysanthemums. The guest room, where the guests assembled briefly before being seated for supper, was most charming in arrangements and had as decoration a lovely bouquet of radiance roses from Mrs. Rogers' garden.

The guests were served at the card tables which were draped with Madeira cloths. The bride's table was marked by a dainty tableau of dolls attired as bride and groom encircled by a golden wedding ring. The other tables were centered by a golden vase which held sprays of fern and lilies of the valley and they too were encircled by a golden ring.

A delicious supper of chicken salad, shaped and served in a golden ring, heart shaped sandwiches made of pale green bread, pickle and wafers was served first and round shaped nut sandwiches, made with brown bread, and delicious fudge cake were served from golden hued plates. Iced Coca-Colas were served in tall glasses.

The hostess' gift to the bride was a large China plate of her bridal China. High score prize, embroidered cocktail napkins, given at the close of the games of Hearts, was won by Miss Isabel Bailey, who graciously presented the prize to the honoree.

Mrs. Willie West, mother of the bride-elect was also an honored guest at this time. Assisting Mrs. Rogers were Mrs. Harry Adams and Mrs. Hamilton Graves. The guest list included Misses Mary Louise West, Martha Bess Brown, Annie Anderson, Edith Penn, Martha Webb, Marguerite and Anna Rose Finney, Isabel Bailey, Claire Weir, Ann Neely, and Mrs. H. D. Lane, Jr., Mesdames West, Adams and Graves.

Lieutenant George Harvey Van Hoorebeke, and daughter, Virginia, of Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, Texas, were guests in the home of Mrs. Van Hoorebeke's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Clark, of Holcomb. Other week-end guests included Mr. and Mrs. Travis B. Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Horace G. Hembree, Horace Clark and Sara Joe Tingle, of Philadelphia, Miss.

Mrs. W. V. Horton attended the fair in Memphis last week, but was called back prematurely on account of the illness of her brother, Mr. Gene Horton.

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Craig and children visited their mother, Mrs. Craig, in Cairo on Sunday.

Messrs. L. Friedman, M. Isenberg and Tobe Isenberg spent Sunday in Clarksdale and Memphis.

LUNCHEON FOR MISS WEST

The handsome home of Mrs. C. H. Calhoun was the scene of a beautifully planned luncheon Tuesday noon when Mrs. Calhoun received luncheon guests honoring her charming young friend, Miss Mary Louise West, who is being feted at a series of pre-nuptial affairs. The home was lovely with bouquets of pink radiance roses, pink dahlias and pink chrysanthemums.

The place cards were pictures of dainty pink brides maids and the table linen was an embroidered luncheon set. Places were laid for six.

Miss West chose a becoming tulle-trimmed dress of brown cloth with matching accessories for the luncheon.

The luncheon served in courses, with shrimp cocktail as first course, a dainty cream cheese stuffed tomato arranged to resemble a tulip as the salad course was followed by the main course of cream chicken, shoe string potatoes, petite peas and buttered rolls, and later dessert of stuffed angel food cake and black coffee, were served. The guests were Mesdames Mary Louise West, Martha Bess Brown, Annie Anderson, Marguerite Finny, Martha Webb, and Mrs. H. D. Lane, Jr.

Mrs. Calhoun presented Miss West a lovely wedding gift of a set of dessert plates in her bridal China.

DUPLICATE CLUB

The charming new home of Mrs. Rob Brown was open to bridge club members on Tuesday afternoon when the Duplicate Bridge Club met at 3:30. Lovely bronze hued dahlias were arranged at points of vantage, lending their beauty to further enhance the setting for this affair. Three tables were placed in the living room for the games. High score prize was compiled by Mesdames Ben Townes and J. H. Neely, Sr., and second high by Mrs. F. S. Hill and Mrs. E. R. Pleasants. Mrs. Brown served sandwiches, cookies and Coca-Cola in the late afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Prondit visited their sister, Miss Adelaide Duvall at Sardinia Sunday. Duvall Prondit of Memphis and Miss Betty Billups, of Jackson, were also guests of Miss Duvall, their aunt, for the week-end.

THE GARDEN CLUB

"Evergreen" the ancestral home of Mrs. T. H. Meek, was the meeting place for members of the Garden Club on last Thursday afternoon, with twenty-six in attendance. For this delightful occasion Mrs. Meek received her guests in her usual hospitable manner, making each one feel most welcome. Lovely dahlias, fantasy zinnias and exquisite fall roses were used in the rooms thrown open to her guests, making a perfect picture for the occasion.

Iced Coca-Cola, sandwiches and olives were served after all guests had arrived, which was most refreshing. In the absence of the President, Mrs. Simmons, Sr., the Vice-President, Mrs. Glen Thomason presided over a short business session at which time, Mrs. W. E. Jackson, chairman of the nominating committee, announced the following officers for 1942: President, Mrs. Glen Thomason; 1st Vice-President, Mrs. Sam Simmons, Sr.; 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. Jay Gore; Secretary, Mrs. Ethel K. Thiel; Treasurer, Miss Willie Cuff. All of these were unanimously elected to serve. Mrs. Thomason then announced the chairman of the program committee, Mrs. E. R. Prondit, Mrs. Giles Patty, and Mrs. Eugene Marders, to serve with her in preparing year books for the coming year. Other committees will be announced at an early date.

Mrs. Ethel K. Thiel named the heads of various committees who will assist her and Mrs. F. A. Stacy in the December meeting to be held at the Community House when the club will show arrangements of table, mantels, doorways and windows, at a "Spirit of Christmas Display."

The old saying "Saving the Best for the Last" was truly carried out at this time, when a "Movie" was given by Mr. W. E. Jackson assisted by Mrs. Jackson showing their lovely garden at different seasons of the year, in technicolor. Also shown was the garden of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Doak, and scenes at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Sam Caruthers and Mrs. E. L. Gerard. Tulips and hydrangeas being featured at these beautiful flower gardens. Other local scenes were also included. Then the "grand finale" of this picture show was thrown upon the screen, of the western trip through many states, made by the Jacksons, giving those of us who have not made this trip, the opportunity to see all the wonders of that lovely part of our country known as "The West", shown in technicolor. It was even more effective, and short talks by the "operator" of the machine, Mr. Jackson, was most interesting and instructive. The picture also showed other Grenadians in several of the reels. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Doak, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Gore, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Meek.

The garden club was indeed grateful to the Jacksons for this rare treat and to our charming hostess, Mrs. Meek for a most enjoyable and entertaining meeting of our club.

Vandiver was co-hostess with Mrs. Kirk and their guests, other than club members were Mesdames Fred Daily, W. E. Jackson and Irwin Johnson.

The loveliness of the autumn afternoon was ideal for the meeting at Mrs. Kirk's very charming home, and the gracious reception of her and Mrs. Vandiver's guests, and the charming arrangement of flowers about the reception rooms were all very delightful. In the living room were tastefully arranged rose hued giant dahlias and a vase of two toned lavender and pink asters arrangement which graced the piano, also lavender toned asters arranged with small pink zinnias placed before a mirror in the dining room, also in the guest bed room, lovely roses and marigolds were arranged.

Mrs. J. K. Aven provided and the high light of the business was the purchase by the club of a Defense Bond.

The program was presented in a most earnest manner and appreciative attention and later open discussion of the two splendid papers given by Mrs. T. B. Revell and Mrs. E. L. Marders showed that the membership is keenly aware of the seriousness of world affairs. The first book review, given by Mrs. Revell on "Into the Darkness" by Stoddard revealed the efficiency of Hitler's Germany and the second book review on "They Wanted War" written by Tolischus and given by Mrs. Marders charges Hitler's regime with wanting world power as achieved through ruthless warfare.

What's Wrong With This Picture?

Yes—the "FOR RENT" sign is upside down and the front walk is misdirected . . . but what else is wrong? The most obvious error concerns the young couple.

My Column

More than one cold blooded murder has been committed in the vicinity of Grenada. In each case, the slayer's family as well as the victim's family will suffer hardships because of the loss of the bread producer. May this column suggest to those who have blood in their eyes to join the army where an excellent opportunity will more than likely present itself for you to blow hell out of somebody. Uncle Sam will let you earn while you learn to kill.

"God Bless America" is a beautiful song and one that all true Americans love. However, the best way for men of military age to bless America is to give some of their time to Uncle Sam. Merely singing "God Bless America" won't stop Hitler.

Mr. Jack Dyre and this column are going to give you fellows a couple of hot tips. Take heed and place money. All right Louisville beat Grenada 27 to 0; Kosciusko defeated Louisville with a net of 27 points. That makes Kosciusko 54 points better than Grenada. Tip No. 2 Rice out scored Tulane 1 point. Holy Cross finished with a margin of 7 in the L. S. U. Holy Cross game; L. S. U. took Rice easy, having a 27 point margin when taps were blown; and, Ole Miss gave the Crusaders from Holy Cross a 21 to goose egg defeat. Don't take advantage of the grads from Tulane by trying to get an even bet. Figures don't lie—Ole Miss is 56 points better than the men of the Crescent City.

Having once gone out for football I know very well how much it helps the boys who get knocked around for your pleasure and entertainment to know that the school and town are behind them. Show your appreciation for those hard hours of practice by attending the games. It so happens that Grenada has a small team and a heavy schedule. Under these circumstances the Bulldogs are due to lose part of the games.

You can close the gate of Camp Blanding now, boys. "Slug" Smallwood has just been transferred from Fort Bragg, North Carolina to the land of perpetual sunshine where winter breezes are as balmy as those of May.

That reminds me, the first ecenelon pulls out of Camp Blanding the 27th for the Carolinas. The 4th corps—comprising the 31st (Dixie) Division, 43rd (New England) Division and the 4th Division, which is stationed at Fort Benning, Georgia—has an approximate strength of 70,000 men. The men will be pitted against the entire First Army of Lt. General Drum. Incidentally, Gen. Drum advocated the creation of a mechanized army some years back.

Why not get Cousin Will Hoffa to let you read some of his letters to General Marshall, the War Department and ranking officials in the city layed out by a Frenchman. If you have any doubts about the many blessings that are Grenada's and the surrounding territory, just get in touch with Mr. Hoffa.

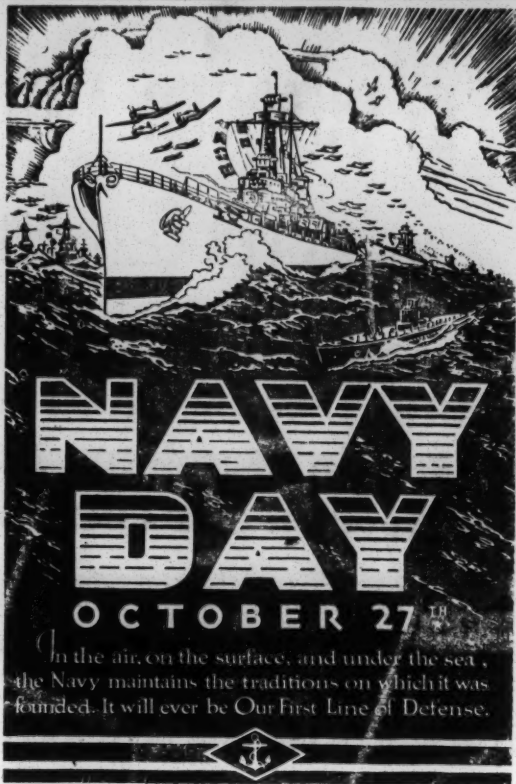

We're getting better food in the army now than we've had since Uncle Sam started footing the meal ticket. We have turkey, chicken, oysters, pork chops, fish, steaks, veal cutlets and a number of other choice meats. We can't quite understand it—on second thought it's hog killing time.

Turn about is fair play. Mrs. Roy Lee Grantham visited Sgt. Grantham a week in Florida, now he's paying her back with a week's stay in Grenada.

Jimmie Jones did not set the world on fire but he did just about as good a piece of driving as I've seen in quite a day. Leaving camp Saturday at 12:00 he arrived in Grenada Sunday morning at 1:30. The seven hundred miles were driven by him in 13 and one-half hours, that's slightly better than a 50 miles per hour average. Just try it sometime, it's quite a job sitting under the control for that length of time without relief.

The soldiers who hail from Grenada are many. Grenada is represented in nearly every branch of the service. Those of us who return home miss more and more faces as the days go by. Shortly—if the rearmament program continues—there will be very few of military age who are physically fit left to enjoy the type of life peace-loving Americans love.

Congratulations to Lt. Biddy and wife upon the arrival of their first child. Lt. Biddy works in the Chief Ordnance office in Washington, D. C.

THE BIRTHDAY OF THE U. S. NAVY

One hundred and sixty-five years ago a committee of three men, John Adams, Silas Dean and John Langdon purchased the merchant ship Black Prince of Philadelphia. Renamed the Alfred, this vessel had the distinction of being the first ship in the United States Navy. These men were appointed by Congress, through the efforts of George Washington, as a Naval Committee responsible for the purchase of two vessels. An original appropriation of $100,000 was increased several days later, making possible the purchase of four ships in all—the latter three named the Columbus, Cabot and Andrew Doria.

The date October 27, on which Congress in 1775 acted to establish our Navy, is celebrated as Navy Day. The purposes of Navy Day are to pay a deserved tribute to the splendid service the men in the Navy have rendered in making and keeping us a nation and to better inform the American people of what our Navy has and does for them. When originally chosen, October 27 marked not only one of the most important dates in U. S. Naval history but also the birth date of Theodore whose life was devoted to furthering a sound naval policy for the United States.

In its early days, the history of our Navy was a turbulent one. During the revolutionary period 73 vessels of all descriptions were used, but through sale, capture and destruction only one was left in 1785 and during that year Congress abolished the Navy, leaving the burden of the protection of our country in the hands of an army of only 50 men. In 1794 our Navy was revived by a Congressional Act authorizing the construction of several frigates to deal with the Algerine pirates and the first U. S. Navy Department was established four years later. One of these new frigates purchased as a result of this act of 1794 was the Constitution—with the Constellation, United States, President, Congress and Chesapeake making up a Navy which, through successful encounters with French cruisers and privateers, established an enviable reputation for itself. In 1801 a series of engagements with the Barbary states and the ensuing treaties rendered commerce in the Mediterranean safe from attack and ended the payment of tribute by Americans.

The outstanding performance of our Navy and privateers during the War 1812 insured freedom of the seas for our commerce and further increased our national prestige abroad.

The effective work of the Navy during the World War is still fresh in the minds of most of us. The establishing fact that no American soldier escorted by the U. S. Navy lost his life in transit across the Atlantic amazed even those in the highest positions of authority.

All American foreign relations, all American participation in the life of the community of nations must find its expression through traffic on the seas. Ships, both commercial and naval, are the means of giving effectively outlet to America's right to participation in international trade and politics.

REV. HENDERSON SPEAKS
AT CHAPEL

At the opening of the assembly program Wednesday the assembly sang "He's My Uncle", "Carry Me Back To Old Virginia", and "The Lord's Prayer."

Brother Henderson, pastor of the Central Baptist Church, conducted the devotional. He read passages of the scripture from "The Acts of the Apostles", "Hebrews", and "Matthew." He said that our relation with Jesus should be more personal than any other relation in our lives. He concluded his talk with saying that peace could be found only by believing in Christ and having Him as our Leader.

Mr. Rundle announced that there would be an interesting assembly program next Monday in the high school auditorium. Details will be next week.

DIRT

Jay Gore squired five maidens to the Indianola game Friday night. The crew was composed of three senior girls (Lou, C. and Dot) and two sophomore girls (Ruth L. and Margaret Green.) Jay was in seventh heaven.

Marguerite, Frances and "Cat" Herling were at the football game with three "Indianolians". Monty Dalgre was also seen with a girl who visited the Herrings last summer and who lives in Indianola. Maggie, "Cat", and Frances' dates returned the visit here Sunday.

Latest News: Mary Lou Cullen was out with Emmett Barrentine. If you can figure that out, we'll just tell that is pure sarcasm.

Question: Who has Beebe's ring?
Answer: Buddie Avent.
Question: Who's car broke down Sunday night?
Answer: Roy Honeycutt's.
Question: Who said Fords weren't any good?
Answer: Margaret Spain.

Teacher: Have you read Gone With The Wind?

Teacher: Well, have you read Scott's Kenilworth?

Pupil: Goodness, no.

Teacher: Well, have you read anything?

Pupil: I have red toe-nails.

Bernice subconsciously turned her ring around on her finger so that you couldn't see the stone. Not day-dreaming, are you, Bernice?

We don't think Jackie would mind if Uncle Sam would lower the exemption age limit a little bit.

In other words prepare yourself to "shell" out a little money.

Roy Honeycutt, Margaret Spain's new flame, is taking Roger's place at Grenada Drug Store. Roger is too much of a "jitterbug" to settle down.

Brinker "Baldheaded" Thrower honored his old home town with a visit this week. Marguerite was with him Sunday.

Jean was at the show with Clyde Horn Monday night, and riding with him after school every afternoon. As you know, Clyde's an Uncle Sam man now.

Rogers, Johnny Mitchell, Larry, and Benton, better known as the "Famous Foursome," spent the night in the Moorhead Hotel Friday night. No harm meant when we say "Poor Moorhead."

The Y. W. A. girls had a scavenger hunt planned for Thursday night. Don't be frightened if some one knocks on your door and asks for a purple-blue-yellow-vase painted orange-black-pink! It's all in fun!

Lil was with Rowe Saturday. It seems that they didn't break up after all.

Leon and Will and a crew of girls made it home from Indianola in four hours flat. Don't folks travel fast now days? Why it was just yesterday when it took the horse and buggy six hours to travel the same distance.

Other G. H. S. folks at the Indianola game were: Martha Johnsey and Willie Lance, Mary Lou and "Hermit" Anne Duncan and Winifred, Buddie and Beebe and Margaret Green and others, Jackie Lane and "Scraper" Lockett.

CAMP'S PERSONALITIES

Adored by all girls, befriended by all boys, and a hero to the high school is—well, you guess. He's tall, dark, handsome and drives a Chevrolet. Lil York has been known to clasp her hands, flicker her eyelashes, and gaze adoringly at a mere thought of him. Ah! He hasn't been attending G. H. S. a year yet. In this short length of time we've learned that he can carry the pigskin, that he can run on the track team, and incidentally, that he's no ignoramus. Need I go further? People just naturally have a hard time calling his name. One never knows what name comes first. Can't you guess? His old cook said he was "tail-or-made" and he is!

STYLE HIT PARADE

Estelle Bailey has a new bright green corduroy dress with a little "beenie" to match. It looks perfect with her dark hair and eyes.

Dot Talbert has been sporting some pretty new plaid skirts and sweaters. Her red sweater is very "flashy."

Mary Lou has a new red jacket with the initials "M. L. C." on it. It must have been a misprint because Mary Lou insists that her initials are M. L. C. She says that when she wears this jacket just call her Mary Lou.

Tommie Horton has been seen wearing a wine corduroy hat. It's really pretty enough for a girl to wear.

Helen Williams got busy and knitted her a sweater and "beenie" to match. It's something new and all girls who knit should have a look at it.

Big bows are seen in all the girls' hair. Jean Geeslin's big pink ribbon "ain't" bad.

Julia Marie Guidry had a patriotic scarf that is quite the thing. It's white crepe with a V—on it.

D. O. PUPILS ATTEND STATE CONFERENCE

Tuesday, Mr. Norseworthy and a group of G. H. S. D. O. students went to Jackson to attend a D. O. conference at Central High School. This was a business meeting in which officers for the state were selected. Sydney Kettle, a G. H. S. student, was elected parliamentarian for the year. Those Grenada students attended were: Polly Richardson, Thomas Dudley MacLeod, Mary Ida Odom, Marlene Harbin, and Sydney Kettle.

STUDENTS SPEAK

Friday several of Mrs. Hathorne's speech students appeared before the Lion's Club. This was a very valuable experience for these pupils because it gave them practice and self-confidence. Those who spoke were: Anne Odom, Louise Avent, Mary Lou Cullen, James Thomas, Warren Robinson, Lucy Moss, Marguerite Stanley, Jay Gore, and Laverne Wilson. The theme for these talks was "youth and democracy."

Name: Louise Avent
Nickname: Lou
Description: Pretty and sweet
Pet Dislike: Term Exams
Boy Friend: Poor
Favorite Food: Lemon Pie
Favorite Song: Oh, Johnny
Favorite Study: Chemistry
Louise has lived in Grenada all of her life. She was band sponsor for one year, and has been a Girl Reserve for the past four years. She was also on the tennis team her junior year. Lou is a member of the National Honor Society, which is the highest honor any student can achieve in G. H. S. Next year she hopes to attend Sophie Newcombe in New Orleans.

Faster than a Bullet

Electricity cannot be stored up. Modern, Mississippi Power & Light Company cheap electricity must be generated for you just as you use it. You press the switch on your wall, or throw the master switch in store, office, or factory, and dynamos whirl in order that service may come to you over modern transmission lines—faster than a bullet! In fact, so fast that service seems to be there, "waiting", when you need it. This type of service doesn't just "happen"—it is the result of years of hard work, the investment of large sums of money, and the day-and-night efforts of an army of trained men and women who have dedicated their lives to the service of the public in the typical American Way.

* This Company and its employees are glad that modern transmission lines bring you dependable Mississippi Power & Light electric service, in rapid fire order, so as to give you—in home, office, store, factory, and on the farm—more time to help maintain the American Way of Life.

Judging from the number of people of Grenada who attended the circus in Memphis Sunday and Monday, there's not much of a depression here.

A good many of you who received notices about your subscriptions early this week must have thrown the notices away. All right, you will soon be cast into utter darkness.

His friends will be interested to know that Will Enderlin is at the Veterans Hospital at Outlook, Kentucky. We join them in wishing for Will a beneficial stay there. I expect, however, he will find roaches pretty scarce there.

The Red Cross unit of Grenada County certainly has a cute hut.

Lots of deacons, vestrymen, etc., attended the circus in Memphis Sunday.

Grandpa J. H. Biddy would like to celebrate, but the folks keep him about three weeks behind with broken machinery.

Things were a good deal quieter in Grenada Saturday night than usual. Nobody killed.

Grandpa Fulton McFee certainly is getting a real middle age spread. Who said fish would not fatten?

We appreciate the orders for job work which we receive, and attempt always to turn out good work.

Users of paper, like the users of sausage and corsets, will have to become reconciled to rising prices for printing. Every month there is a revision UPWARD in all classes of paper.

Jeff Davis Baker, of Phoenix, Ariz., is assured of another 12 months of a pending matter, thanks to his sister, "Miss" Fannie Morrison.

Our neighbor, Earl Dennis, who bought Spaul's Baker, has become a new subscriber. Thanks, neighbor.

What with the beautiful weather for fishing and with the circus in Memphis Sunday, there was a mighty short attendance at church and Sunday School that day.

It looks like Jack Robinson, the secretary-manager of the Northeast Mississippi Council, is doing a lot of publicity work for the Council.

Ain't they sweet.

Our street, Beale Avenue, certainly was booming last Saturday. Lots of folks in town spending seed money.

Chancellor Smith released a number of persons from the bondage of matrimony this week. Most of them are figuring on getting hooked up again.

The GCW is following Ed Henderson to his new home in Greenville, so are our best wishes.

The man with a growing herd of cattle, particularly dairy cattle, occupies a mighty safe place in life, for the prospects for dairy products are great for a long time. There is a great demand from the U. S. Army for dairy products and will be during the war. After the war, the hungry people of Europe, friend and enemy alike, must be fed. Then, breeding stock in almost unlimited quantities will be necessary to repopulate the pastures of war-torn Europe.

Our Montgomery subscriber, Eugene Payne, who works for the Woods Products Corporation in Alabama's capital city, dropped in and made an appreciated call recently.

A good deal of stuff was left out last week, and some of the items may be slightly stale. The poem by Lady Byron was so fresh that we ran no risk in keeping it over. Some poetry is so rotten that you have to print it at once lest it "spile".

We invested several dollars in stamps Saturday to mail out subscription notices, and have already got back six or seven times the amount paid out.

The OPM is going to curtail printing shops and newspaper plants in their buying. There is not an unlimited amount of paper, as the defense program uses countless tons of paper, and its consumption is increasing.

While in the past we have done a good deal of joking about having about all the subscribers we want, the shortage of paper probably will eventually force us, and all newspapers, to refuse to take new subscribers, as it is our guess that the supply of newspaper print allocated to individual newspapers will be frozen at or near the present degree of consumption.

Cousin Belle McLean is now visiting her sisters in Vicksburg and will have the GCW follow her. She certainly is a loyal supporter.

The man who is painting the signs on the streets showed us where we live, that is on the northeast corner of South and East Streets. We never knew THAT before.

His friends are glad to see Dr. J. K. Arent up and about after a spell of illness which kept him at home for two weeks.

Those who did not go to the circus in Memphis on Sunday compromised by going on Monday.

About the only consolation that the soldiers on the Russo-German front have is that it is, at least, cool there. It is about as hot here in Grenada as it was in July and August.

I am going to do what I can to break the hot spell, for I am taking off my coat and tie.

"Miss" Fanny Morrison who used to beat learning into my head thru the lower route, not only paid up in advance, but paid up two months in advance.

From my uncle Whyte Whitaker of Memphis, I learned Sunday that the lot on which our building now is, was owned by his father and my grandfather, Alex Whitaker, about sixty or seventy years ago.

Eddie Davis, our two bitter, gets his name in the paper every two months.

From the looks of things, there is going to be some more new grandpaws and grandmamas around Grenada shortly.

Several got divorces this week. They will be back in chains again soon. Like flies, those in want out, and those out want in.

One of our favorite waitresses, they say, is sporting a big piece of ice on her engagement finger.

It certainly is a great pity that, with such a fine harvesting season, our people did not have more to harvest.

I did not attend Chancery Court this week as I never could understand whatthehell was going on at this kind of court.

No. 8 as a completed highway will be about the most important road leading into Grenada. 51 Highway leads more out than it does in. No. 8 is primarily a feeder road for Grenada, as Grenada is the largest town on No. 8, unless perchance Aberdeen is slightly larger than Grenada.

Everything was reported to be quiet at Holcomb and Oxberry last Saturday.

Little Fric Horton spent the weekend at home, and so did Helen.

Another excellent colored subscriber, L. J. McCain on Route 5, must have got hold of some seed money, for he has been marked up for another year.
